GRANDPAP'S SPECTACLES.

Oh, Mamma, what will Grandpapa do?
He's gone away to Heaven,
Without the silver spectacles
That Uncle John had given;
How can he read the papers there,
Or find the himacy staff;
He'll put his coat on wrong side out,
And make the people laugh.

And when he takes the Bible down
And wipes the dusty lid;
He'll never find his spectacles
Within its cover hid;
There won't be any little girl
He likes as well as me,
To run and hunt them up for him
And put them on his knee.

Oh dear! he'll never find the place
About "the wicked flee,"
And how the bears ate children up,
(That used to frighten me;)
So, mamma, if you'll dress me up
Just like an angel bright,
I'll fix our ladder 'gainst the sky
And take them up to-night.

EVIL FRIENDSHIPS.

There is nothing in which the young need more caution, than in the formation of their friendships. If you form an evil acquaintanceship you will surely get a snare to your soul. It is so much easier to go wrong than to go right, that he will drag you downward instead of you being able to lift him up. A friendship founded on anything but sound, virtuous principles, is not stronger than tow in the flames. It will not survive self interest. As soon as the rulers had made Judas their miserable tool in betraying Christ, they cared no more for him, "what is that to us? See thou to that," was their sneering reply, when he came back, tortured with remorse at the consequence of his deed. Those who have been your foremost flatterers in the sunshine, utterly desert you when the dark hours come, no matter what benefits you have heaped upon him.

Pope Clement V. had surrendered himself with a throng of flatterers, on whom he had bestowed vast riches, amused by his scandalous sale of benefices. The wealth that poured in upon him, he scattered with a lavish hand among his favorites, but when it was known that he was dead, there was a general rush for his treasure house. No one thought it worth while to watch beside the still form which could confer no more benefits. The wax candle beside the bed, fell over, setting fire to the clothing, and half consuming the body. A miserable garment, not thought worth taking, could alone be found, in which to robe for his tomb, one who so lately had been clothed in purple.

This is the friendship of the world, this the gratitude which follows such an unholy life.

A kind and wise disapproval of what is wrong, may for the time seem displeasing, but he who exercises it, will afterwards "find more favor than he who flattereth with his lips." Never yield an atom of principle to please the nearest friend. You lessen by so much more influence over your him for good ever after.

POPE OR KING?—The revolution in Italy—or in Rome rather—promises to be, as it ought to be, a peaceful one. Garibaldi would seem to have no mind to have a hand in it, preferring rather to go to Paris, to help run the Republican machine there, leaving things in Rome to take their course—while, as for Mazzini, his brother revolutionist, we have heard nothing of him since his arrest at Milan some weeks ago. If telegrams to the London journals can be relied upon, an amicable arrangement for the occupation of the Papal territory has been agreed to. A plebiscitum is to be taken, by which the inhabitants are to decide for Pope or King as their civil ruler, the decision to be binding on both. In the meantime the Italian troops will hold the Roman territory until the voting is over; and if the result is adverse, the King will withdraw. This seems fair enough, but everything depends upon an honest election, which we suppose may be had, if the high contracting parties abstain from seeking to exercise undue influence at the voting places. If there is any cheating around the board, or ballot box stuffing—such as attended the French plebiscitum—the moral effect of the compromise will be nil, and with fresh dissatisfaction, on one or the other side, is sure to come new troubles. In the interest of peace, therefore, let us hope that the partisans both of King and Pope will act upon the maxim, that, in these as in other cases, "honesty is the best policy."—N. Y. Express.

ENGLAND.—The New York Commercial is evidently no lover of England. The editor says:

"Here's to good old England, God bless her!" was the toast drank by British officers on the eve preceding the attack upon Singapore. Well, since that time "Good old England" has sunk into good for nothing old England. She won't fight herself; she won't prevent others from fighting she won't make war; she won't sue for peace; she don't care a fig for any more Holy Alliance; she is indifferent what becomes of Napoleon; she'd just as lief the Prussians would take Paris as not; the reproaches of Victor Hugo are nothing to her; she wouldn't give a sixpence to know what other people think about her, and from first to last she seems to rest happy in the blissful assurance that whatever she does, she'll be damned for it. Here's a sweet spectacle of national contentment! Here's a beautiful picture of Anglo-Saxon tranquility! It does our heart good to think of it. Yea, while some are treading upon the tail of the famous lion, while some are poking him in the ribs, while some are pulling his ears, while others are getting on his corns, and all are trying to stir him up, we repeat, it does our heart good to behold the perfect complacency, the majestic indifference of that once ferocious beast.

A JUDICIAL OPINION.—A lawyer came into Court drunk, when the Judge said to him:

"Sir—I am sorry to see you in a condition which is a disgrace to yourself and family, the Court, and the profession to which you belong."

The reproof elicited the following colloquy:

"Did your honor speak to me?"

"I did, sir, I said that in my opinion, you disgrace yourself and family, the Court, and the profession to which you belong, by your conduct."

"May it please your Honor, I have been an attorney in this Court for fifteen years, and permit me to say, your Honor, that this is the first correct opinion I ever knew you to give."

THERE ARE THREE THINGS THAT GO WELL," says the wise man; and one of these three he puts down in the Book of Proverbs as "a King against whom there is no rising up." If the King of Prussia is wise he will find that concessions to the conquered people of France may result in the safety of his own crown and kingdom. Pestilence, it will be seen, has taken up arms against Prussia, and is killing more than the enemy's bullets.—N. Y. Express.

The war has, no doubt, benefitted the arts a great deal. At least, it has developed many fine pieces of carving.

BARBECUE AT SCOTLAND NECK.

On Thursday last there was a grand gathering of the people of old Halifax at Scotland Neck, to rejoice over the late victory achieved over Radical misrule and corruption. The crowd was variously estimated from 1,500 to 2,000. The dinner was well served and in great abundance.—It was said 500 more could have found a plenty to eat. Capt. Whit. S. Anthony, the Chief Marshal, and his Assistants, were alive to secure good order throughout the day. A brass band, from Wilmington, discoursed sweet music, which added greatly to the pleasure of the entertainment.

The counties of Martin, Bertie, Edgecombe and Northampton, were represented. Speech of the News, was quite at home among his neighbors and friends.

The speakers were General Ransom, Messrs. Kitchen, Gregory, Bunn, Clarke and Turner, and were introduced, very handsomely, by Mr. J. M. Mullins.

We had the honor of making the first speech, which we did in our usual strain, no better than usual and not much worse.

Gen. Ransom made one of his best speeches, which was well received by all. The colored people were well pleased with that portion of his speech addressed especially to them. The General reminded them that they were below the mark in their estimate and selection of public rulers and officials, and so far below the proper standard that the men whom they had recently elected to fill the county offices, had failed to give bond, because they were not sufficiently well thought of by their neighbors. The General and his speech were received by the people with acclamation and rejoicing.

Mr. George H. Gregory, member elect from Martin, followed General Ransom, in a well considered, well delivered speech.—He said the victory was won in Martin, by every man's going to the polls. He could hear of but ten men who did not vote; all turned out, even the sick, lame and blind.

Capt. Benj. Bunn, of Rocky Mount, followed Mr. Gregory. He said the lateness of the hour forbade his entering fully into the discussion of the questions of the day. He had cause to rejoice with all Halifax over the victory lately achieved, and he desired now to invite all Halifax on the 29th to Rocky Mount to feast and rejoice with all of Edgecombe.

Capt. Kitchen was next called for; he said he was at home and not expected to speak, nor was he willing to speak where so much had been so well said by others.—He congratulated the people upon the plentiful feast and joyous day they had spent. He knew that great good would come of such interchange of opinions and rejoicings among the people. After to day the black and the white men in Halifax would know and understand each other better.

Mr. Richard Smith was next called for; the shouts and exultations of the colored race, showed that Mr. Smith's popularity in Halifax was not confined to his own race. Mr. Smith said that he had been sick several days, and was too unwell to attempt a speech. He had only arisen to return thanks for the compliment which the call implied, and to express his satisfaction and gratification at what he had this day seen and heard.

Col. Walter Clark, concluded the day's entertainment in a short, graceful and congratulatory speech, thanking the speakers for the pleasure they had given himself and the audience. With the Colonel's speech closed the most joyous day and brilliant festival old Halifax has seen for ten long years.

NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.

At Goldsboro on Friday morning, the engine drawing the mail cars gave out. The fact was made known at the shops by telegram. The passengers some twelve in number were informed they would get off at six o'clock instead of three. Six o'clock came and the hour of departure was deferred until eight. Eight o'clock came and the hour was again deferred until twelve. Some retired at 12 and others remained up until two.

The servants at the Hotel announced that the train would leave at seven A. M.

About ten o'clock we learned there would be no train at all until three o'clock P. M. W. A. Smith & Co., having suspended the Standard, we thought the Goldsboro' end of the road had been suspended too, but Billy came up with four freight cars attached to the mail or passenger train which was some compensation to the company for the break down.

As a friend of the North Carolina road, we shall not object to freights from Goldsboro' seeking the Norfolk market by way of the Raleigh and Gaston road. When the Ford troops were here last winter they went to Wilmington by way of Weldon.—This we thought a bad arrangement for the North Carolina road. Freight trains are entirely "suspended" on the Goldsboro end of the road. This is not right, nor is it proper to delay passengers for fifty-two hours after so slight a break down.

JUDGE DICK AND THE MOSAIC LAW.

Judge Dick pretends to great reverence for the old Mossic law. We think he does not understand that ancient and divine law or his reverence for it is all put on.

We beg to call his Honor to a little reading from the 35th chapter of the Book of Numbers:

"And the Lord spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho saying,

And among the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites, there shall be six cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint for the manslayer that he may flee thither; and to them ye shall add forty and two cities.

So all the cities which ye shall give to the Levites shall be forty and eight cities.

And the Lord spake unto Moses saying, speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, when ye be come over Jordan into the land of Canaan; then ye shall appoint your cities to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither which killeth any person at unawares. And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger; that the manslayer die not.

These six cities shall be a refuge both for the children of Israel and for the stranger and for the sojourner among them; that every one that killeth any person unawares may flee thither.

And if ye smite him with an instrument of iron so that he die, he is a murderer; the murderer shall surely be put to death."

We can understand why Judges Dick and Settle appointed, for Kirk and his lambs, only two cities of refuge, Graham and Yanceyville, instead of six, as Moses commanded.

The six cities of refuge, we are told, extended "on the East side 2,000 cubits, on South side 2,000 cubits, on the West side 2,000 cubits and on the North side 2,000 cubits."

The cities of Graham and Yanceyville are made as extensive as the counties, and the two are larger, even, than the six commanded by Moses. So what is wanting in number by the learned Judges, is made up in size.

There is a disregard of the Mossic law on the part of these two learned Judges which even Tourgee will find it difficult to reconcile either with justice or the plain letter of the law.

"These six cities shall be a refuge both for the children of Israel and for the sojourner among them," saith Moses. The two cities or counties it will be seen by reading the opinion of Justices Dick and Settle are made cities of refuge only to Kirk and his lambs and not to the sojourners, Rogers, Wheeden and others who were imprisoned and hanged, by Kirk and his lambs.

Let it be remembered that Bench warrants have been issued for some twenty citizens of Alamance, both before and since Josiah Turner, Jr, applied for one against Kirk, Holden and Burgin. In the last named case the Judges say:

"We are of the opinion that we have no authority to issue a warrant to the insurrectionary counties of Alamance and Caswell against the military officers and agents of the Governor, while they are acting under his orders in suppressing the insurrection!"

Outside of the insurrectionary districts they may be arrested, as the powers of the Court are in full force. The motion for a Bench warrant against G. W. Kirk, G. B Burgin and Alexander Ruffin is allowed. The warrant will be directed to the Sheriff of Wake County to be executed in any part of the State, except the Counties of Alamance and Caswell.

We have no hesitation in saying the opinion of Justices Settle and Dick militates against the law of God, Moses, and the people of North Carolina. In the decision, refuge is provided only for Kirk and his lambs. It is against the law of the people of North Carolina, because their Constitution declares "every person restrained of his liberty, is entitled to a remedy to enquire into the lawfulness thereof and to remove the same, if unlawful and such remedy ought not to be denied or delayed."

Blessed be the just Judge, but woe be to the Judge who smites contrary to the law.

CAPT. W. W. HOLDEN.

The person whose name heads this article, is one of Holden's retired "malish." There is some hope of him, for he is heartily ashamed of his connection with Holden, Kirk & Co. He says Major Berry, the paymaster came into camp between the hours of twelve and two at midnight. The guard was doubled and orders given to allow no one to come in or go out with or without the countersign. The men were then paid off about two o'clock at night. He further says, he received a card or letter signed by Governor Holden, inviting him to join a military organization called State troops, but when they were paid off they were called militia. The Captain says, calling in service under one name and paying off under another at midnight, shows there is something rotten in Denmark.

EXCHANGE HOTEL.—Blow your horn Billy not being able to blow his engine at Goldsboro' on Friday last, detained us one night and a part of two days at this excellent hotel, kept by Messrs. Gregory, Murphy & Co. We were well entertained, and found the hotel accommodations very good. The polite attention of the proprietors at this hotel, make it a desirable stopping place.

Major Dunham, the Conservative member elect to the House of Representatives, from Wilson county, we are glad to hear has recovered from his recent illness.

Two of Kirk's negroes, named Ben and Nathan Williford, were arrested in Wilson last week for horse stealing. Nathan was discharged, but Ben, was committed to jail, being unable to give a bond for his appearance.

The Knoxville Whig says East Tennessee has raised this year five million bushels of wheat, and will have a surplus of three million bushels for sale. More than has been raised in that section for twenty years.

TO THE PATRONS OF THE STANDARD.

Business complications in no wise connected with the present proprietorship and editorial management of the Standard, render a suspension of the paper necessary for the present. In a short time our patrons and the public will be communicated with and our plans for the future developed.

W. A. SMITH & CO.

We clipped the above from the Standard of Saturday last. It had been rumored for some weeks that the Standard would succumb to the pressure of the times and fall under the hammer, but we did not notice the rumor because we knew nothing of its truth or falsity. The above card from its present proprietors explains the matter. It is said, there are large claims against the establishment on account of debts due by Littlefield & Co., and that the property is to be sold, but when does not seem to be fully known by the public. It is also rumored that a company of carpet baggers is to be formed for its purchase, composed of Mr. Ashley, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Gen Abbott, U. S. Senator, and Mr. Churchill, the former clerk and local of the Standard, and that Mr. Dowell, the little bandy-shanked editor of the Pioneer at Asheville is to be its editor, but we do not know it is true. We hear it further rumored, that Billy Smith, the horn blower of the N. C. Railroad, has had a sad experince in its management, having lost $2,000 by his connection with it. We know nothing of these matters except rumor, but it would seem after all the bravado and bragging of the Standard, after its liberal support by the State and General governments and after all the trickery and stealage employed in its support, that an attempt to revive it under such auspices, promises but little for its future success.

We hope never to see the day when we shall rejoice at the pecuniary, the moral or the religious downfall of any one, no, not even at the fall in these respects of our worst enemies; but in the hope that a change for the better may be effected by its sale, we can but give expression to a conviction we have long had, that its transfer to other hands, might be a real benefit to the State.

For many years, the Standard has been a curse and a blot upon the State. Under the management of Governor Holden both as its editor and since as the controller of its course, it contributed more than all other papers of the State, to lower the standard of the public press, by its personal, malicious abuse both of public and private citizens, by its violent denunciations of every man of position in public life, by its miserable demagogism and its bitter partizanship. It has by its position been constantly influential for evil, by arraying one class of the community against the other, pandering to the worst passions of the masses, and at one time or other, it has denounced and betrayed every party with which it has acted.

We repeat, we do not desire that any individual shall suffer by its downfall, but if it is transferred to hands that will conduct it more respectably and for the elevation of the press and the good of the State, we shall rejoice. Like its old proprietor, the Standard has outlived and driven off form it all its old friends, and played the part of an Ishmaelite towards all who have honestly opposed its course. Let it die in all its bad aspects and proclivities, but let it arise again only to bless and benefit the State.

ROBESON COUNTY—RADICAL KU KLUX.

We have heretofore, on more than one occasion, called the attention of Gov. Holden to the condition of Robeson county.—He has not lent an ear to the matter. No political capital, perhaps, is to be made out of any investigation into the crimes committed in that county, but Alamance and Caswell, they are declared and held in insurrection, when they are quiet, because forsooth, the Governor thinks something can be made out of Democratic Ku Klux doings. Our doctrine has been, let crime be exposed and punished, no matter where it occurs and let the supremacy of the civil law be maintained.

The Wilmington Journal of the 17th, speaking of affairs in Robeson, says:

Affairs, in many parts of this county, are said to be in a deplorable condition. The plague-spots, the League desperadoes,—have again broken loose and, with their combined cunning and ferocity, manage to hold some portions of the county in a state of constant dread and unrest. We are reliably informed that the citizens, in many instances, carry their arms with them to work shops and the fields, not knowing when they may be called upon to use them in defence of their property; just as, in the old times, the early settler, working, sleeping or waking, never parted with his trusty rifle.

It is said that there are several white men in the gang, and this only makes the matter worse. The present condition of affairs in our unfortunate sister county should not be longer tolerated and every man who loves peace and order, and favors the maintenance of the laws in Robeson, and in the adjoining counties, should rise at once, and not rest again until the common enemy has been captured and—disposed of.

The Journal gives the following particulars of a recent outrage in that County.

"On Thursday last Jim McKinnon, colored, who was in the employ of Messrs. McQueen, turpentine operators, Red Banks, Robeson county, assaulted, with a pistol, and in her own house, Mrs. Finch, a white lady. Her husband, who had been sent for, approached, when the negro advanced on him with a pistol. At this demonstration Mr. Finch, who was armed with a gun, shot McKinnon, wounding him severely in the knee. But the assailant still continued advancing, crawling on one knee, and repeatedly snapping his pistol at Mr. Finch. When he had reached the door step, this latter struck him over the head with the breech of his gun, when the negro took to the swamps, but was afterwards secured and carried to the jail at Lumberton."

STILL ANOTHER.—On last Sunday morning the 11th inst, about 3 o'clock, five of the Robeson county desperadoes suddenly made their appearance at the house of Mr. Alexander McMillan, residing near Union Academy, and having driven the family, consisting of Mr. McMillan, his brother and his sister, into the kitchen and placed a guard at the door, proceeded to ransack the house. They carried off four or five guns and three pistols, belonging to the Messrs. McMillan, $5 in money, a large lot of bedding, and the wearing apparel of the family. Two with their guns stood at the door of the kitchen to guard their prisoners, while the other three were plundering the house, and the breakfast of the family being on the table, the guard quietly helped themselves."

AN IMPORTANT AND NECESSARY HISTORY.

"This I hold to be the chief office of history, to rescue virtuous actions from oblivion to which a want of record would consign them."—TACITUS.

As early as 1863, I was so much impressed with the necessity of having a history of North Carolina during the war of the States, that I urged the matter in the Raleigh Standard, and called upon several of our men of literary training to gather contemporary material and afterwards to prepare an elaborate and fair history of our State's connection with the war, showing what she did and how she suffered. If I had cause to think then that such a work would be necessary, how much more cause have I to think now, in view of the manifold and great injustice that has been done to our people by those who have essayed to tell the story of the war, that a work of this sort is an absolute necessity. I thought then that some son of old North Carolina, "native to the manor born,"

"Who loved his State because it was his own,
And scorned to give aught other reason why," should devote himself to the preparation of a careful and candid history of his people, during the troublous times through which they were then passing; and now that "grim visaged war hath smoothed his wrinkled front," and more than five years have passed since the surrender of the Southern armies, I still believe that such a history is highly important and desirable.

Who will perform for our people this labor of love? It is surely a theme worthy of our most practiced and gifted pens. I am confident that the favorite of the State—a man of marked versatility and true genius—could not achieve a nobler work than to consecrate himself for a season to the discharge of this paramount duty. I refer, of course, to Gov. Vance. He has the information, the industry, the fairness and the ability requisite to the successful completion of such a task. Will he not agree to undertake it? And is this connection, I take leave to refer to that accomplished and distinguished author, Mrs. Spencer, whose "Last Ninety Days of the War in North Carolina," is one of the most admirable historical brochures yet published in this country. She could prepare such a work as the occasion demands. It would be a source of great satisfaction to thousands to learn, that either she or Gov. Vance would presently enter upon the composition of a work that would vindicate the character of the State, and in fitting phrase tell the world what the good people of our staid, true, honest old commonwealth accomplished and bore during those fiery, sanguinary days.

Some two years after the war, whilst editing the Warrenton Indicator, I published several columns relative to this subject and regretted that my brethren of the press seemed to regard the matter of such little moment. For more than five years since the war closed, I have waited to see if some one would not announce the undertaking of so grateful a duty. Thus far I have waited in vain. My purpose, therefore, in this brief article, is to give notice, that unless some other writer should agree to prepare the work, I will devote whatever leisure I can command during the next two years to the production of a history of North Carolina from 1860 to 1865. However reluctantly I may enter upon the task, my desire will be to write a clear, succinct, reliable narrative of the events connected with the career of the State during the years indicated. I will avoid as far as in me lies all partizanship, and will never agree to so prostitute my pen as to magnify any man's deeds at the expense of candor and truth.

The book, if ever written by me, will be an octavo of, I suppose, some six hundred pages, and will be divided into three parts. Part first will be devoted to the historical statement; part second will contain graphic sketches of individual character. Biographical portraitures of Generals Pender, Pettigrew, Branch, Ramseur, Daniel, Anderson, Gordon and other distinguished dead will be given, and perhaps, sketches of some of the most eminent among the living soldiers will be included also. Part third will contain a full army Roster, in which will be published the name of every soldier, when he entered the service, when discharged, killed, &c.

It is confidently believed that North Carolina sent more troops to the war than any Southern State according to population, and that she sustained greater loss by the casualties of war. This, I doubt not, can be made to appear from facts drawn from reliable sources. The book will be embellished with the likeness of our most prominent officers.

I would be glad to have an expression of opinion from the press of the State relative to the merits of the plan suggested and the importance of such a history. I would also be pleased to receive any suggestions in the premises. Editors noticing the proposed work would oblige me no little by sending a copy of the paper containing their observations.

It this communication should provoke some more competent writer than I to attempt the work, I will be amply repaid. I promise to abandon my project as soon as I learn that the task will be undertaken by any native North Carolinan. If I should enter upon my proposed labors due notice will be given, and an earnest appeal for aid will be made to those who take an interest in the matter.

My address is, OXFORD, N. C.

T. B. KINGSBURY.

September 14th, 1870.

A GREAT GRAIN MARKET.—Milwaukee is the greatest grain market in the world. It has six large elevators, able to hold from half a million to a million and a half bushels. Yet last week five hundred cars were standing in the freight yards and on the tracks of the city unable to discharge their wheat. This immense glut is from old wheat, and the merchants estimate that there are a million more bushels of the crop of 1869 to come.

GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-SIX REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,500,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes of hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $1,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders (this included the dividend for the present year) as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealing so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1, 1869, was $51,021,141.00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and has by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It employs the best medical talent for examination of applicants, and writes policies only on the very best lives, thus keeping the mortality among its assured far below the average.
22. Policies in this company may become self-sustaining, by the operation of dividends, after a comparatively short term of years.
23. Policies in this company, by the application of dividends in the appropriate method, periodically increase in amount, without increase of premium, until after the lapse of a term of years, it is expected they will be at least doubled.
24. Losses in this company are promptly paid, and information always given without delay to the interested parties.
25. It combines all the advantages of all other companies, without any of their objectionable features.
26. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $13,000,000 greater than any other company.

MAYOR'S COURT, Sept. 19.—Yesterday morning His Honor disposed of the following cases: Henderson Tyler, charged with being drunk and disorderly on the streets. Henderson, being unable to pay a fine, was locked up in the Guard House for sometime and allowed to "chew the cud of sweet and bitter fancies."

Henry Cheek, charged with firing off a pistol within city limits. Released, as he supposed some one was trying to steal wood.

William Jones and Annie Yates, charged with a certain indecent exhibition in the grove at Winters' Row. Fined $5 each.

Robt. Ruth, charged with lying drunk in front of Sorrell's store, on Wilmington street. Released.

Josephine Mahler, a notorious strumpet, for street walking. Released.

ANOTHER AFFRAY.—Yesterday morning, on Wilming on street, Wm. Bell, (white) a discharged member of Holden's State Troops, and John Cole, a negro, engaged in a fisticuff. We are informed that Cole proved the better man and gave Bell a thrashing. The matter will be investigated by the Mayor.

DEAD.—We learn that Mr. Henderson A. Hodge, one of the Republican members elect to the House of Representatives for this county, died at his residence on Saturday night last.

FIGHT.—Two colored men, James Jones of this city, and Fly Cross, who says he is an Indian, from Granville county, indulged in a setto in front of the Yarborough House yesterday morning. Whisky and politics was the cause. Jones was the party that got thrashed.

ASTRAY.—On Sunday morning, the police took possession of a horse, saddle and bridle, running, riderless, through the streets and lodged him in the Livery stable. We have not been informed whether or not an owner has appeared to claim the property.

STEALING A PITCHER.—Henrietta Cooke, col., was arrested on Saturday afternoon, charged with having purloined a pitcher and waiter from Mr. James Pullen. Henrietta gave security for her appearance before His Honor on Monday morning (to day,) but up to this writing we have heard of no disposition of the case.

COMING SURE.—We have received positive information from those who are bound to know, that Edwin Forrest, the great Tragedian, has leased Tucker Hall for the Fair week. He comes the 18th of next month and will remain until the 24 h. Our theatre going citizens will be highly gratified to hear of this.

Isaac Jeffries, colored, who escaped from jail in June last, was retaken on Sunday night, about three miles from the city, by Sheriff Lee and Deputies Magnin and Temple. Jeffries was at home, where he arrived on Saturday, after a tour through the country after his escape. He heard the officers when they surrounded the house, and hid himself up the chimney, the click of a revolver, however, persuaded him to come down. Jeffries is charged with stealing Dr. Hogg's bacon.

Two bales of new cotton were shipped from Franklinton on the 15th inst. One was raised by Henry Pearce, Esq., and shipped to Messrs. J. D. Joyner & Co., Petersburg Va., and the other by Capt. W. H. Williams and shipped to Messrs. L. Green & Co. These are the first from Franklin county, of the new crop.

A CHALLENGE.—Our State Agricultural Fair has offered a premium of a silver Fireman's Trumpet to the best hand engine, and I am authorized by Mechanics No. 2 of this city to say we intend entering our engine and offer a challenge to any hand engine in the State.

The District Conference of the M. E. Church for Washington District, which assembled at Halifax on the 8th inst. had a pleasant and interesting meeting. When the Conference adjourned it was agreed that the next meeting should be held in Wilson. Among the visitors present, we see the name of Rev. J. H. Daily, Pastor of the Methodist Church in this city.

On Monday last the elegant residence of Peter E. Smith, Esq., located just outside of the town of Scotland Neck, was destroyed by fire. The fire was the result of an accident. Loss about $8,000; no insurance.

HISTORY OF NORTH CAROLINA.—We commend to the attention of the press and people of the North Carolina, the proposition of Dr. Kingsbury, in our columns to-day, to write the history of North Carolina, so far as relates to her participation in the late war. All will agree with Dr. Kingsbury that the thing should be done, well done and done at once, and we have no doubt it would be well done, if undertaken by himself. A good history of the State from its first settlement to the present time is much needed, but if we cannot get that, let us have her history embracing the period from 1860 to 1865 or to the present time. The plan which he proposes would be very acceptable we judge to all. The second part, he might find it very convenient to merge into the historical narrative, where the actors were connected with current events and where any of them fell in the struggle or survived, nobly doing service to the country, but we prefer that the author should follow his own plan, as the execution of the work might be rendered more difficult, were he to change it.

Wm P. Grimsley, of Greene county, has instituted a suit for libel, against the editors of the Newbern Journal of Commerce for $5,000 damages. We do not recollect the particulars, but presume the Journal published something in reference to Mr. G. upon the authority of creditable witnesses. Grimsley is a leading Radical in Greene.

There is a letter held in the Wilmington Post Office, for the lack of postage for W. C. Belden, Raleigh, N. C.

Burglars broke into the store of Messrs. Blumenthal & Levy, in Wilmington. It was broken into on Thursday night, but were discovered and chased off before they could secure much booty.

J. C. Collahan, Radical Clerk of Cumberland Superior Court, who was displaced by the Board of Commissioners on account of not being able to give the required bond, has been re-appointed by Judge Buxton.

It is stated that Jas. H. Pool, of Newbern, is making arrangements to publish, at an early day, a Democratic paper at Kenansville, N. C.

Wilmington is shortly to have a Dollar Store.

On Tuesday, Aug. 30th, a destructive storm swept over a portion of Robeson county. Crops, fruit trees, &c., were badly damaged.

Friday morning of last week, says the Statesville American, a considerable number of Holden's and Kirk's troops passed up the Western Road, returning to Tennessee, having been paid off with money that should not have been used for that purpose. They were the worst looking set of vagabonds that we ever beheld, and as rowdy as ill appearing.

The Superior Court for Wilkes county is in session. Judge Anderson Mitchell presiding.

The first bale of new cotton sent to New York from Wahington, (our little Washington) was shipped by Jno. Myers & Sons.

The smoke house of Capt. Wm. Edwards in Edgecombe county, was entered last week and a large quantity of bacon taken. A raid was also made upon the smoke house of Capt. Jas. R. Thigpen, who suffered to some extent.

Lumberton is to have a ladies' and gentlemen's Literary Society.

A man named Kit Huggins living in Wilmington, made a very narrow escape on Friday morning last. A small boy passing the Railroad track, early in the morning discovered him lying across the track, and upon trying to arouse him found that he was so drunk that he (the boy) could not do anything with him. Knowing that it was nearly time for the train to come along, and very few persons being astir at that early hour the boy made all haste to the police station. Returning with two policemen, the man was removed from his dangerous position just a few minutes before the train came.

Wilmington wants more light. We wish some folks up here could get some more than they seem to have.

Work upon the new Presbyterian Church in Statesville, is being pushed forward rapidly.

LEADUS DOINGS IN STATESVILLE.—One night last week, at a late hour, one of our physicians was sent for to visit a patient, the messenger being a colored person, who made considerable noise in arousing the Doctor from his slumbers. It appears that a meeting of the League was being held, somewhere in town, and that their attention was attracted by the noise, "fuss" as they called it. The night being dark, the physician and messenger, the latter having a lantern, took a near route through a field. Before proceeding far, they were overtaken by a rush of some 25 negro men, and halted, one of whom held in his hand a drawn sword, while others of them displayed clubs and perhaps other weapons. On being questioned as to their object, they had been attracted by the "fuss" and came to "see about it." Thus it will be seen, that Holden's Leagues are still kept together, and organized for mischief—and mischief, only, as the election is past and that pretense is at an end.—Statesville American.

DEMOCRACY, PUT ON YOUR ARMOR.—Maine, as in the olden time, is wheeling into the Democratic line. The Radical majority is about 5,000, the Democratic gain more than 11,000, and the strength in the Legislature largely increased. Between the factions of Chamberlain and Morrill the Democrats will hold the balance of power. Cities and towns have gone Democratic this year for the first time. All honor to Vermont and to Maine, the last soon to be the Star in the East.—N. Y. Express.

They tell a very ugly story on Senator Sprague, of Rhode Island. It is said that his speeches made in the Senate, at least one or two of which attracted a good deal of attention, were written by Prof. Granx, of Washington, under a regular contract, and that Sprague refuses to pay for the work. In prosecuting his labors the Professor contracted a bill for printing amounting to $90, which he, unpaid himself, was unable to pay, and Sprague would not, and the suit for the money disclosed the above facts.

Monday Evening Dispatches.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Cable dispatches from private sources, dated London 19th says: "Reported armistice is unfounded. Peace prospects are unimproved."

FOREIGN.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—The Journal Du Republic publishes Jules Favre's circular. It contains the following points: Why the election of members of the constituents Assembly occurs the second instead of the 15th of October, contrary to decisions made regarding the de jure character of the present government. Favre admits the irregularity but argues the urgency of the case. The defence of the integrity of the soldiers and national honor involved a return of the delegated power to the people. Nothing is to be expected from Prussia. Her supreme will and exaltation from success, are irreconcilable with calm impartiality and statesmanship. Two hundred thousand victims have already been sacrificed to her ambition and it is certain that she will exact terms from France, which the present economy and honor of the country cannot for a moment accept. Hence we convoke an Assembly, freely chosen, to decide what we ask now is to save France, our hearts and our blood. Then let France decide, not our transient authority, but immortal France, arising itself to confront Prussia. France loosed from the winding sheet of the Empire, frank and generous, is ready to immolate itself for right and liberty, disavowing all those exalted to fatalities of the old Government. France has now no ambition but to remain mistress of herself and to develope her material and moral resources. Ask for this she asks a cessation of hostilities, but she will prefer a thousand fold of disaster to dishonor."

Favre adds "mankind must admire, but pity the spectacle of Paris, without looking right or left, or backwards, defending its firesides and its freedom."

AGRICULTURAL.

APPLES.

The apple crop throughout the Union will probably exceed that of any previous year. Since the culture of fruit assumed its present importance, and became so widely spread.

Not unfrequently certain sections are entirely without apples, even if peaches and pears are reasonably abundant; but this year the crop is general in its distribution, and must be very large in its aggregate.

What can be done with them? Early fall apples can be gathered and made into cider. Nine bushels will make a barrel, and that barrel turned to vinegar ought to bring its owner, within a twelve month after it is ready for sale, at least fifty cents a gallon. Good cider vinegar has been worth sixty cents, and may reach that figure again before another apple year.

Some of the miserable compounds that people call vinegar, and which are bought and sold for such, cost less in cash, but are far more expensive to whosoever is beguiled into using them.

Another appropriation—if your cellar is not good for making vinegar, or your neighborhood lacks barrels which can be bought at a reasonable price—is, to feed them to hogs. Our practice has been to boil them with potatoes, in the proportion of one bushel of fruit to two of vegetable, and the stew was not only palatable, but we believe the apples possessed an actual value not far from twenty cents a bushel.

As to winter apples, they should all be gathered, and with more care than would be bestowed on a crop which was small, and, of course, sure of ready sale.

When there is a scarcity, anything will sell; when the supply is abundant, the best always finds the readiest market, and the poorest frequently none.

Besides, good apples, well gathered and well preserved, cannot fail of finding a remunerative sale some time before the next season, if not this fall or winter. There cannot be an overstock next June, and if care in gathering and preserving will give to the fruit grower a sure market, then the bestowal of both is alike the dictate of prudence and economy.—Hearth and Home.

MANIPULATION OF MANURE.—Under this heading, the World has the following:

"Manure should never be allowed to be scattered over the barnyard, as thereby it loses much of its fertilizing power by evaporation and rains, but it should be kept as much as possible in one heap. Foul seeds, sweepings from the barn-floor, should not be permitted to get among the manure, but should be put into a hole called the 'chaff-hole,' with any other otherwise worthless trash, such as rye chaff, weeds, etc. This hole may be about three feet deep, with the earth thrown all around it, and about ten feet in diameter; this trash will in course of time make a good top-dressing for grass-land, and at the same time prevent the foul seeds from being carried into the fields with the manure."

DESTRUCTIVE WEEDS.—In many fields, the fence corners are full of rank, coarse weeds. The potato and corn fields on some farms are no better, and it is not economy to allow this mass to fall down and rot on the same spot where it was grown, but it should either be gathered together and burned or placed in the rot heap. We prefer burning, as the seeds will then be destroyed, and manure made from weeds is seldom of much value. It only requires a little forethought or calculation on the part of the farmer to find time for attending to these little matters at the proper season. There are farmers who always manage to keep every thing in order, and do not work nearly as hard to do it as others, whose places are in the wildest confusion, the difference being the result of calculation.—Hearth and Home.

A citizen of Louisville has invented a machine for picking cotton. It consists of four wheels and running gear similar to that of an ordinary wagon. In the centre of the bed are several teasles such as those used for napping cloth. The teasles are contained in a wire cylinder, and operated by means of pulleys. When in running order, the frame is lowered over the rows of cotton, which it cleans off the plants just as well as if done by hand.

No more Explosive Coal Oil—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Duly sealed for 20 years from May 9th, 1865.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜ is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

FOR THE IMPROVED
"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 2½ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 130,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet · Size Bale 4½ feet x26x28inDth; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612); I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly,
C. W. BYNUM.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the gain upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton, also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders all their really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, (neither with the extraordinary attractions presented by the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, this or Annuity Bond which provides an income to each through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.
